Dear Chairman Powell:

Steel City Telecom is a provider of high-speed Internet connections for businesses in the east Coast region. If Verizon is given free rein over the industry service will deteriorate, coverage will be limited, prices won't regulate, and customers will be forced to use only one product. Not to mention the fact that many will lose thier jobs and income. Don't take away the consumers ability to have choices and don't devastate smaller ISPs, we are important to this industry to be sure that there are more options than telcos. We limit hold times, provide superior service, better support, more knowledgable people, and take more pride in what we do. Please help!!!

Sincerely,
